The First Meeting

The sugar baby arrangement can be defined by individual and couple needs, and that should be discussed first before the initial meeting. One thing is certain: an arrangement is not a one time thing. A first time meeting is no different from a first date. The goal is to see if you can develop a relationship with this person. Once the relationship takes off, funds and intimacy are a natural progression.

The sugar world is new and exciting, but not without a few common faux pas. Sugar stereotypes exist for a reason, but the root of a mutually beneficial relationship is much deeper than the monetary gain. When two people enter an arrangement, attraction and common ground should be some of the first things that first pique your interest. Starting your sugar experience should be a smooth transition, and all Babies and Daddies should avoid some common mistakes.

Pay as you go or allowance for sugar babies?

There are two ways for a Sugar Baby to get her sugar money: either a monthly allowance paid at a agreed upon time of the month, or a 'pay as you go' type of payment. Guys you need to find out if you want to see your sugar baby again before yo decide or jump in like you did with your wife.

Remember your wife will just take money out of your check book or your wallet and it is ok I don't get it. you want a sugar baby but can't stand when they keep the money? isn't that whole point of sugar babies? they aren't doing this for their health, they're doing this for the money. why are you annoyed that they would "pocket" the money and leave? it's weird how you complain about the money when you chose to be in that type of lifestyle.
